

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MARSHALL DIVISION

REFERRAL ORDER DF-72.2 CIVIL ACTIONS ASSIGNED TO JUDGE DAVID FOLSOM

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §636 and the Local Rules of Court for the Assignment of Duties to United States Magistrate Judges, it is ORDERED:

CASES REFERRED

1. One-sixth (16.66%) of the civil actions assigned to me from the Marshall Division of the Eastern District of Texas are hereby REFERRED to Magistrate Judge Harry W. McKee for all pretrial proceedings, and another one-sixth (16.66%) of the civil actions assigned to me from the Marshall Division are hereby REFERRED to Magistrate Judge Caroline Craven for all pretrial proceedings.

PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS

2. Magistrate Judges McKee and Craven, respectively, shall handle all pretrial proceedings in cases referred under paragraph 1. This shall include:

a. hear and determine all matters within the magistrate judge's dispositive jurisdiction;

b. proceed in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(B) and (C) concerning matters excepted from the magistrate judge's dispositive jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(A); and

c. after approval of the final pretrial order, in those cases in which the parties have not consented to the magistrate judge's jurisdiction, the magistrate judge shall issue a report to the undersigned indicating that the case is ready for trial. Upon receipt of the report, the referral under paragraph 1 shall be withdrawn, and the case shall be returned to the undersigned for all further proceedings and entry of judgment.

CONSENT

3. Upon receipt of signed consent forms by all parties, the case shall be reassigned to the appropriate magistrate judge, who shall conduct all proceedings, including jury and non-jury trials, and order the entry of judgment.

REFERRAL PROCEDURE

4. Cases referred to either magistrate judge under this order shall be selected randomly.

5. The clerk shall administer the random referrals and case assignments to Magistrate Judges McKee and Craven according to procedures devised by the clerk and approved in advance by the undersigned.

6. In order to protect the integrity of the random case assignment procedure, the clerk shall take steps to ensure that every case referral shall be free from actual or potential influence or manipulation by any litigant, counsel, member of the public, or court staff member.

7. In the event of recusal or other disqualification of the magistrate judge in a case referred and assigned under this order, the case shall return automatically to the docket of the undersigned, subject to further orders of the court.

8. Case referrals pursuant to paragraph 1, case reassignments under paragraph 3, and withdrawals of referrals under paragraphs 2 and 7 shall be effected automatically under this order. Absent special circumstances, case-specific orders of reference, reassignment and withdrawal shall not be entered.

9. This order does not affect General Orders 05-4, 05-5, 05-6, 05-7 and 05-8 or other established procedures for referral to magistrate judges of special category cases (e.g., preliminary motions to proceed in forma pauperis and for appointment of counsel in Title VII cases, prisoner cases, matters on the miscellaneous docket, etc.).

10. Nothing herein shall preclude reference of additional matters to the above-mentioned magistrate judges or the withdrawal of references in cases subject to this order whenever appropriate.

This order shall become effective as of cases filed on or after the date of this order.

Signed this ^{14th} ~~7th~~ day of ~~February~~ ^{MARCH}, 2005.

DAVID FOLSOM
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
